

Mind and Spirit

Vibrant, inspiring, thought-provoking – fine art photography speaks to our minds and spirits with a visceral impact unlike any other art form. Join us for a reception celebrating our new exhibit and experience the transformative images of photographers Jeffrey R. Brosbe, Dana Levine and James G. Respass. Their work takes you on a journey through visually striking black and white forms, vibrant color images that celebrate the richness of the human experience, and compositions that reveal a spiritual facet of landscapes using new digital photography techniques. Explore the inner strength and beauty of images that do not just capture the world – and transform our experience with MIND and SPIRIT.
